of the Wilson bill. Mr. Hull followed with a discussion of the effect of the agricultural schedule on his State of Iowa. This precipitated a long dispute with Mr. Springer, who produced statistics and figures to prove that protection for the farmers was a sham and fraud. Mr. Loud devoted a few minutes to the proposed fruit schedule, which, he said, had ruined the raisin and prune industry of California. Mr. Walker interrupted with what he claimed was a privileged matter. It proved to be an inquiry as to why the five Democratic members of the ways and means committee who had made speeches refused to print those speeches in the Record. Mr. Reed-Those speeches have been hauled up for repairs. (Laughter.) Mr. Wagner spoke of the manner in which American ships went in ballast to Nova Scotia and came back heavily laden with agricultural products of Canada. The rest of the afternoon was consumed in further discussion of the Henderson amendment. Those who took part were Messrs. McMillin, Springer, Bowers, Hayes, Hall of Minnesota and Clark of Missouri. The House then took a recess until 8 o'clock. At the evening session the speakers were

GODSEND TO ENGLAND.

Ex-Consul Smyth's View of the Effect of the Wilson Bill.

Messrs. Bell, Shaw, Morgan and Childs.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 .- A great many men who have been engaged in the manumeture of various articles in this country quring the operation of the present tariff law have indicated to the Representatives in Congress that as soon as the Wilson bill becomes law they intend to close up their factories or mills and engage in the import business. These statements of intention have no possible connection with politics; they are not made to influence anybody's vote in Congress, and come forward from so many directions that it begins to look as though the competition in the import trade on this side of the Atlantic and the Pacific would be much greater than was ever dreamed of by the most enthusiastic free trader.

The other day there was in Washington William C. Smyth, a well-known Republican of St. Louis, who has just returned from Europe, where for many years he was a United States consul. Mr. Smyth, being a good American citizen, is an extreme protectionist, but he stated to his friends here that just as soon as the Wilson tariff bill becomes law he would enter into an extensive import trade. He intends to deal most largely in articles manufactured in England, where he is well known and where he has made many business connec-

"I was at first bitterly opposed to the provisions in the Wilson tariff bill," said Mr. Smyth, "and in the interest of this country I would oppose it even now, but personally I hope it will become law without material amendment. Great preparations have been made by manufacturers abroad for the Wilson tariff bill. The hundreds and thousands of factories and mills which have been idle for many months, many of them years, have already been put in repair, their fires banked, and everything made ready to start just as soon as the demand for goods in anticipa-tion of the new tariff law in this country begins. It is a great blessing for the manufacturers, mechanics and laboring men of England, especially, that the duties on our imports are to be lowered and the free list enlarged. Not only are there tens of thousands of idle workmen in England to-day, but there are tens of millions of dollars invested in factories and mills which are idle and decaying. These are to be started up and made of value. There is scarcely an article mentioned in the tariff bill upon which a duty is levied which cannot be imported under that proposed law and sold in this country at lower prices than they can be produced by our own people. Free raw material is not alone the secret of the fact that England can produce manufactured articles cheaper than we can produce them. There are millions too many mouths to be fed in England. There is in that country an immense overproduction of people. They are educated to not only live cheaply, but work harder than our people can work. England is simply an island which produces little out of the soil, and it is essentially and necessarily a manufacturing point. While she can produce the manufactured articles for our country she can buy her food products cheaper in other countries than ours-in countries which send her the raw materials from which she will make our goods."

THE TAX ON BEER. Senator Jones Thinks It Could Be In-

creased to $2 Per Barrel. WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 .- There are some members of the Senate finance committee who think that there should be an additienal tax on beer. Senator Jones, of Arkansas, is one of these. He is not decided as to whether he shall offer an amendment of this character to the internal revenue bill, but he is considering the matter. "Beer." he said in discussing the question to-day, "is now taxed a dollar a barrel. There are 32,000,000 barrels of this beverage manufactured in the United States, so that it is plain to be seen that if we must increase the revenue, as it appears we must, if the expense of the government are to continue as at present, an addition of a dollar a barrel would help out very materially. The total amount realized would be about half the estimated deficit under the Wilson bill when it became a law. "I know," he continued, "that it is obfeeted that it would not be politic to tax the poor's man's beverage, but I do not think that politics should be taken into consideration in arriving at a conclusion in so important a matter as the raising of revenue for a great government. I contend, however, that this increased tax would not affect the consumer at all. It would add only about one-fifth of one cent a glass to the cost of beer and it would, of course, be impossible to add this amount to the retail price of the article. As a matter of fact, I am told that beer would be sold for one or two cents less than it is but for the difficulty of making change and the objection that most people have to carrying pennies.

It is understood that Senator Voorhees does not think the country would accept with complacency an aditional tax on beer and he would probably oppose a proposition in that direction.

NO RETALIATION. The Wilson Bill Framed in the Interest of Foreigners.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 .- E. E. Perry, of Indianapolis, secretary of the Millers' Association of the United States, is here. He came to induce the ways and means committee to put into the Wilson tariff bill a clause retaliating on France for the latter's double duty imposed on our flour. There are retaliatory clauses, it will be remembered, in the McKinley tariff law, and countries which discriminate unjustly against our products are discrimimated against by this county. It is understood that the ways and means committee has refused Mr. Perry's request, but that a Democratic member of the House, not a member of the committee, probably Mr. Harter, of Ohio, who is a miller, will propose the retaliatory amendment.

Mr. Martin has presented in the House the remonstrances of John Delaney and twenty-two other citizens of Converse, and of the Dillow Glass Company, Levi Scott and 107 other citizens of Fairmont, against the reduction of the tariff duty upon green and flint glass bottles proposed in the Wil-

LETTER FROM SHERMAN.

The Senator Thinks the Fate of the Tariff Bill Uncertain. SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 19 .- The following letter from Senator John Sherman has been received by Walter Hugson, a resident of Spokane, and forwarded to Governor McGraw:

"I have not felt at liberty to write to the Governor of Washington advising a special session of the Legislature to elect a Republican Senator. I have felt that he is better able to determine this question than I, at this distance; that it would be presumption in me to volunteer advice unless my opinion were asked by him. I think the fate of the tariff bill is very uncertain in the Senate. There is some strong opposition to it in the Democratic party, but whether it will die away under the persuasive influence of the administration and party pride no one can as yet state. The tariff bill as it now stands is thoroughly victous, not only greatly affecting injuri-ously the multiplied industries of this country, but it is still more victous in reducing the revenue and creating a deficiency which must be met by loans or insolvency. That every Republican State should be fully rep-

DEMOCRATICHARMONY

Mayor Dugan Arrested in Huntington by One of His Own Party.

Masked Burglars Raid the Crown Point Station-Mr. and Mrs. Kerr Airing Their Soiled Linen at Brazil.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. HUNTINGTON, Ind., Jan. 19.—The Demoeratic Mayor of this city, Z. T. Dugan, was arrested to-day on a charge filled against him for intoxication. Change of venue was had from one justice to another and the case is set for hearing next Tuesday. The complaining witness is a Democratic county officer, who was recently arrested and fined before the Mayor for visiting a house of ill repute. The row is strictly Democratic, and the Mayor's friends say the purpose of his arrest is to defeat his aspirations for a second term as Mayor.

A CROWN POINT HOLD-UP. Five Masked Burglars Overpower the Night Operator.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CROWN POINT, Ind., Jan. 19.-Five burglars made a raid on the Panhandle depot here this mroning at 3 o'clock. The night operator, Harry Pilling, was bound and tied fast in front of two revolvers and relieved of $15. They then drilled three holes in the safe and exploded powder in them, but the safe stood the charge. While their work was going on two freight trains were let go by the station, the burglars having taken down the signal, but fortunately no harm was done. The third train stopped on orders, and it is supposed this scared them away. Pilling was found by the train men and liberated. Several tramps were run in during the forenoon, but no evidence could be had showing they were implicated. The robbers were heavily masked, and had a lot of tools.

BAD STORY ON MRS. KERR. Her Wealthy Husband Asks for a Divorce and So Does She.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. BRAZIL, Ind., Jan. 19.-The divorce suit of James A. Kerr against Deliah Kerr was begun in the Cirucit Court this morning. Mr. Kerr resides in Carbon and is one of the wealthiest citizens of the county. The plaintiff charges his wife with adultery, the corespondent being Benjamin Simpson, of Carbon, who is also quite well-to-do, being the owner of several coal mines. Mr. Kerr avers that his wife has met Simpson divers times at Indianapolis, Greencastle and Carbon, and that Simpson accompanied her to the world's fair in November. Mrs. Kerr denies the charge, and filed a crossbill asking for $40,000 alimony. The case promises to be the most sensational and interesting one that ever occurred in the

FOUNDATION DAY.

Anniversary Exercises at the State University Last Night.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Jan. 19 .- The annual foundation day exercises of the Indiana University were celebrated to-night by unusually interesting exercises at the chapel, there being a very large attendance of the citizens and students. The glee club was present and gave several selections and university life ran high as college songs and college yells were given with a will. The annual historical address was given by Judge Banta, dean of the law school, who told the story in brief of the institution from 1838 to 1850, before the change from a college to university. It was during the thirties that the Methodist Church became aggrieved because of the charge that the Presbyterians were getting more than their share of privileges. An appeal finally landed in the Legislature and in State politics, defeating Governor Bigger in 1843, Asbury University was born out of the conflict. Factions also became troublesome in the institution, resulting in the trial and acquittal of President Wylie. It was also during this period that a strong fight was made in the Legislature for the State to withdraw its support, but the institution triumphed, since which time the State has provided for its maintainence. The student body was represented by J. N. Callahan, of Mitchell, now of the senior class, who talked on college life and gave a description of what it used to be and the methods of discipline.

The Peru "Black Hole."

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PERU, Ind., Jan. 19.-That blot on civilization, the Miami county jail, better known as the "black hole," is again giving the officers of this county much trouble. It was constructed in 1858 underneath the courthouse and grand juries for the past ten years have condemned it. As the law of the State stands, ill health incurred while inside the walls is no reason for an action against the county. Action must be brought against the sheriff and the county commissioners personally. John T. Norris, the Ohio detective in jail here, has been released on the advice of physicians that confinement in the place means his death. He is subject to heart disease and a few nights ago came near dying owing to the poor ventilation. As a precautionary measure the officials are caring for him outside.

Letters Written for Blackmail. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Jan. 19.-Capt. George Warcup, of the Huntertown Regulators, a village in Perry township, brought in George Wolford, of that place, this evening charged with writing slanderous, obscene and threatening letters to Fischer C. West. a wealthy farmer. A few days ago West received a villainous letter and a few days later his wife received an abusive note through the mails. The writer demanded $500 from West and in another letter demanded $600 from Mrs. West as hush money. The writer said West would be killed if the money was not paid. The letters were too foul for publication. Suspicion pointed to George Wolford and he was arrested. He is a young man who was given a sentence in Fort Wayne two years ago for larceny.

Weidener Elected.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. DELPHI, Ind., Jan. 19.—The postoffice election in this city yesterday resulted in the selection of James W: Weidener by a large majority. He lives a few miles south of the city and is an excellent citizen. The other candidates joined in recommeding his appointment. R. M. Isherwood, editor of the Times, who is Congressman Hammond's recommendation, refused to go into an election. Hon. Newberry Howe, one of the most influential men in the Democratic party of this county, left last night for Washington with the certified result of the election. He will urge Weldener's appointment and expects to bring the commission back with him. There is trouble in the ranks of the spoilsmen and it will be many a day before the sores made in this battle will heal up.

Threw $360 in the Stove.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. UNION CITY, Ind., Jan. 19.-George Parent, a farmer residing near this city, burned up $360 to-day. He has the renting of the Dr. James farm and had just sold the grain raised the past season. He was in Al Lambert's grain office, counting the money and preparing to send it to Mrs. Dr. James at Marshall, Ill. The money was lying on a table and after doing some figuring on a piece of paper he gathered it up and threw it in the stove. Upon returning to the desk he discovered the money gone and went to the stove only in time to see it consumed

W. J. Moore's Mishap.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MUNCIE, Ind., Jan. 19.-This morning W. J. Moore, of Buffalo, was attacked with an epileptic fit while on a Big Four railroad passenger train east of Muncie, and came near losing his life. During the paroxysm he pushed his head through a closed window, cutting a half dozen had gashes about his face and neck. Before the train reached Muncie the man was nearly dead from loss of blood. He was going to Inlianapolis to visit a sister named Mrs. Hayes. He is being well cared for at the City Hospital, but will be confined for some

Dorsey Family Poisoned.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 19.-The family of Ernest Dorsey was poisoned resented is a palpable fact, but whether your Legislature is in condition to elect a last evening by eating headcheese. Shortly lit is not necessary to call a doctor for a could not be surprising to the common cut or bruise; get Salvation Oil. Only 25c.

children were all taken ill, and also Billie Sanders and Mark Bass, who were there for supper. Doctors were with them all night, and to-day the babe is not out of danger yet, and the doctors say that they all had signs of arsenic poisoning. Two children, who put mustard on the cheese they ate, were not very ill.

Crushed to Death by a Derrick.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FRANKLIN, Ind., Jan. 19.-John Riplinger, foreman for W. E. Grey, the bridge contractor, was instantly killed to-day while unloading a derrick at Mr. Grey's stoneyard, near the junction. The timbers were very heavy and in lifting them from the wagon, Mr. Riplinger was overcome by the weight and the derrick fell on him. The dead man's home was at North Vernon, where he had a wife and six children. The remains will be taken to North Vernon for burial to-morrow morning

The "Barbs" Won at Franklin.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FRANKLIN, Ind., Jan. 19 .- Officers of the Franklin College Oratorical Association were elected yesterday afternoon as follows: President, E. A. Hanley; vice president, C. A. Wilson; treasurer, O. C. Wright; secretary, Minnie Jones, The president is a "barb" and the vice president and secretary are "independents" while the treasurer is alone a Phi Delta Theta. The "barbs" are ratifying.

Paralysis and Grip.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PLAINFIELD, Ind., Jan. 19.-Amos Alderson, who was stricken with paralysis last Monday, died this morning, aged sixtynine. The deceased has been identified with the interests of this vicinity for many Barney Fop, a pioneer of Washington township, died at his home near Avon this morning of grip, aged seventy.

First Saloon in Twenty Years.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FARMLAND, Ind., Jan. 19.-For the first time in twenty years a licensed saloon was opened here this evening. The City Council held a meeting Wednesday night and fixed the liquor license at $150 and a license of $125 for running pool tables. Only one license was granted, the proprietor being William T. Shaffer, whose saloon was re-cently burned at Muncie. Vonbeheren Nominated for Mayor.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MARION, Ind., Jan. 19.-L. A. Vonbe-

heren was nominated for Mayor to-night by the Republicans on the third ballot. The vote stood 56 to 54 against Elkanah Hulleri, J. A. Gauntt and G. D. Custer having withdrawn after the second ballot. Vonbeheren represents the younger element.

Second Brother to Hang Himself.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SPICELAND, Ind., Jan. 13. - Lincoln Hays, son of Joel Hays, of Franklin township, committed suicide yesterday by hanging. Two years ago another brother committed suicide by hanging. The mother of these boys is in the insane asylum at Rich-

Receiver for an Electrical Company. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ELKHART, Ind., Jan. 19.-The affairs of the Adams Electrical Company, of this city, have been placed in the hands of D. Baugher as receiver. The financial stringency is

L. W. Otto, Jeweler, Assigns. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 19 .- L.

W. Otto, jeweler, of this city, made an assignment to-day. Liabilities, $12,000; assets, $9,000. Dumont Kennedy is assignee.

Indiana Notes. John Clark, at the Westerman rolling

mills, in Marion, lost an eye by an explosion of natural gas, which destroyed a furnace, besides doing other damage. Gillam Graves, on trial for the murder of Jack Milligan at New Albany, was acquitted yesterday, the jury finding the kill-ing was done in self-defense. The verdict was returned in thirty minutes. James Downey, at Marion, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary and a fine of $50 for writing the forged check passed by George Lamasters on Max Berenstein.

Lamasters received a similar sentence. WILSON THEN AND NOW.

He Seeks to Destroy an Industry at Whose Birth He Assisted.

Boston Advertiser. Edward Brown, a well-known business man, recalls an interesting experience of his own. Soon after the McKinley bill went into operation Mr. Brown and some business associates put money into a tin plate manufactory not far from Washington. When the works were complete he assembled a company of men to watch the progress of manufacture. In that company was an earnest, studious-mannered thoughtful man, who watched the progress of the development of the mill with keenest in-terest. Had he been owner of the mill his enthusiasm could not have been greater or

At last the supreme mement came and the president of the company turned to this thoughtful man and said to him: "I wish that you would do me the honor of putting the finishing touches upon this product.' And then he gave the thoughtful man a sheet of iron and bade him do a certain thing, and the thoughtful man rejoiced at the honor, dipped the sheet of iron and brought forth at the same time a perfect specimen of American tin plate. And he was delighted, pronounced the specimen a perfect piece of workmanship and said that it demonstrated that at last America was going to be able to manufacture this product for itself.

This thoughtful man was none other than Professor Wilson, and it was with amazement that those who read the report writ-ten by his hand recalled this happy moment in Professor Wilson's career when he honor of finishing the first American tin plate produced. Mr. Wilson must have greatly changed his views, for he now seeks in his bill to undo in Congress what he demonstrated with his own hand could be done in that manufacturing plant.

WHO WILL INHERIT IT?

Interesting Question Regarding the Vast Property of the G. A. R. Philadelphia Inquirer.

What will become of the property of the Grand Army of the Republic when all the surviving veterans of the war of 1861-66 shall have passed away? As is well known membership in the great organization is restricted to actual survivors of the rebellion, and as the life of man is limited there must naturally come a time within the twentieth century when even the youngest drummer boy who participated in the war will have succumbed to old age, and the Grand Army, in so far as its active ex-istence is concerned, will be a thing of the

The interesting question then arises as to the ultimate destiny of the large amount of valuable property which the organization has acquired during its existence. In Philadelphia alone this property runs up into Several of the posts own their own halls, and all of them possess more or less valuable collections of books, war records of incalculable value to the historian of the future, relics and battle flags, which, if provision is not made for them beforehand are liable to become scattered and practically lost to posterity when the posts die

Tell Cleveland to Mind His Business. San Francisco Chronicle.

The press of the Sandwich Islands is not disposed to regard Grover Cleveland with awe. One editor plainly tells him that no matter what wrong the United States may have committed in assisting to overthrow the Queen-but he adds no such assistance was rendered-Grover Cleveland had no business to attempt to subvert the provisional government. To do so, he says, would amount to a denial of the right of revolution. The provisional government is fairly established, and is fully capable of maintaining itself, and therefore England, the United States or any other country has no right to interfere to bring about the restoration of the Queen. This is the right kind of talk, and we are glad to hear the islanders speak up and rebuke the pretensions of Cleveland, who, while charging that Harrison's administration committed an act of injustice in aiding the people of Hawaii to overthrow a monarchical form government, coolly assumes that he has the right to overthrow a well-established government in order to reinstate the deposed Queen. If the islanders would act on their convictions and oppose force to any attempt on the part of Cleveland to carry out his designs, the American people would applaud them, and if the President should be insane enough to attempt to coerce the Hawaiians it is safe to predict that he would not serve out the full term of his office.

Riley's Punishment. Washington Post

James Whitcomb Riley is receiving a punishment that fully fits the crime. Every place he appears some amateur author fires a dialect poem at his head.

MURDERERS HANGED

Wilson Howard, a Notorious Desperado, Executed in Missouri.

Albert Bomberger Dropped Into Eternity for Killing Six Persons-An Illinois Brute Also Given His Deserts.

LEBANON, Mo., Jan. 19.-Wilson Howard died by hanging at 9:17 o'clock this morning. His bravado sustained him until last evening, but when the last train arrived from St. Louis without his uncle his nerve failed and he made a pitiful exhibition of himself. He attempted suicide last night by swallowing morphine, but was unsuccessful. Early this morning he was baptized by Rev. B. F. Thomas, of the M. E. Church, and when he was taken to the scaffold his courage reasserted itself. On the scaffold he said: "Friends, one and all, we shall meet in heaven." The cap was then adjusted and the trap sprung. The drop failed to break his neck and he strangled to death. Howard maintained his innocence to the last, and declared that Mc-Michael's murder was committed by a relative named Martin, whose evidence at the trial told heaviest against Howard. Howard was a Kentuckian, and prior to his appearance in Missouri some six years since, was mixed up in one of the bloodlest vendettas known in Kentucky. Thirty murders were charged against him. The crime which brought him to the gallows was the murder of a deaf mute named Thomas McMichael, in Maries county, in 1889. The murdered man was stopping with a deaf mute friend in a remote part of the county, when Wilson appeared at the house. He represented himself as a detective and pretended that he wanted Mc Michael for robbery. He took the mute out into the woods a short distance from the house, shot him and robbed him of about $50 and disappeared.

A Brute's Awful Crime.

CANDO, N. D., Jan. 19.-Albert Bomberger was hanged here to-day for one of the most brutal crimes in the history of the country. He refused to see hear a clergyman, and when the gallows said. "I am for my crime, and hope no one will follow my footsteps." As stated, Bomberger's crime was a horrible one. On the morning of July 7 last he murdered his uncle, Daniel S. Kreider, his aunt and four young cousins because of some words with his uncle, and in order to satisfy his criminal passion for his fifteen-year-old cousin, Annie Kreider. Bomberger had been employed as general utility man about the farm for nine months previous to the tragedy. He had made advances to his cousin, Annie Kreider, but had been repulsed, and on the evening before the murder she had threatened to tell her father of his actions. This threat was brooded over, and at daylight Bomberger went to his uncle's room and shot him as he lay asleep. He then went to the kitchen, where his aunt was preparing breakfast, and shot her. Annie was locked in his own room, and he next killed Bernice, aged thirteen, Lerly, aged eleven, Mary, aged nine, and David, aged seven. The youngest girl's throat was also cut to make sure of death. He spared the three younger boys in answer to the supplications of Annie, the oldest child. Next he compelled the girl to prepare his breakfast while the mutilated body of her mother lay on the floor at her feet. Coolly and deliberately he ate his breakfast, drove the girl to his room, and afterwards to the barn, assaulting her criminally several times. After tying her fast and locking her in the barn, he saddled a horse and made for the Manitoba border. The little ones left alive soon released their sister, and she gave the alarm. Bomberger managed to make his way unmolested to Deloraine, Manitoba, where he was captured the next Saturday night, only forty hours after the Lacore Pays the Penalty. JOLIET, Ill., Jan. 19.—Ernest Lacore, who attempted to assault and then killed Mary Ellen Bryon, a twelve-year-old girl, on Aug. 6, 1893, was hanged here at 10:34 o'clock this morning. The crime was committed at Wesley. In confessions made by Lacore, after his arrest, he stated that he enticed the girl into a thicket by a story of a dead steer belonging to her father, attempted to assault her, but on her resisting, took her head in his hands and threw her down. It was shown by the coroner's inquest that her neck had been broken by the blow. Lacore narrowly escaped lynch

NEGRO LYNCHED

After Killing One Member of a Mob

and Wounding Another. NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 19 .- A white man was killed and a white boy seriously injured in a successful attempt to lynch a negro in the parish of West Feliciana night before last, news of which only reached the city to-day. The negro was accused of setting fire to a corn crib on the Greenwood plantation, and a mob was organized to go to his house and horsewhip him. The mob proceeded to the cabin of the negro and knocked for admittance. When the negro heard the cries on the outside he picked up his gun and opened fire on the crowd and succeeded in killing a plantation hand named Roberts and serloudy wounding a boy, the son of the pro- order, and some of the scenes are intenseprietor, Reed, of the plantation. The firing | ly dramatic. Mr. Goodwin has opportunithe negro infuriated the crowd, which succeeded in breaking in the door. The negro was captured after a hard resistance and was taken to a near-by tree, where his body was strung up and riddled with

Three Persons Shot.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 19.-A man named Frank Williams entered the house of Cora Harris, colored, at Jeannette, Pa., about 10 o'clock last night and, without warning, began firing his revolver at the inmates. One shot took effect in the back of J. Adler, an ex-policeman of this city. Another bullet struck Cora Harris in the breast, but was turned aside by a corset steel, producing an ugly flesh wound. A shot hit an unknown man in the wrist, the bullet passing through and badly shattering the bone. Adler's injury will result fatally and it is feared the bullet is still in the body of Miss Harris. Williams was arrested.

Whites Trapped by Negroes. AUGUSTA, Ga., Jan. 19.-The Rouse Ridge, S. C., rioting of negroes against

whites proves worse than anticipated. Paul Green is dead and Rhett Green will die from wounds received. The battle was in ambuscade set by negroes to prevent a white constable from arresting a negro desperado named Jude. The officers were betrayed, it is alleged, by a white man who will be lynched if caught.

Battle with Convicts. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 19.-A posse,

organized by Sheriff J. F. Dexter, of Blocton, had a battle at Goethe, ten miles from Pratt City, this morning, with a gang of seven convicts, who escaped from the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company's stockade, at Pratt City, last night, about dark. Sheriff Dexter was killed and Jim Davis, one of the convicts, fatally wounded. Two other convicts were captured.

Arrested by an Indiana Sheriff. OIL CITY, Pa., Jan. 19 .- John Johnson, allas A. C. Shaw, was arrested at this place, last night, by Sheriff Clausmire, of Fort Wayne, Ind. Johnson is the man who, while under arrest, almost a year ago, shot and killed the marshal of Fostoria, O. The authorities have been upon his tracks for many months. Omens of Christ's Second Coming. To the Editor of the Indianapolis Journal: Rev. Bartlett's article, "Second Coming of Christ," in the Journal, brings to mind

a scene, once before my eyes, that never has been erased, nor can it be, from my

November of that year; and, under the particular circumstances with me, just then, the effect that scene had upon me

memory. He quotes St. Matthew's words, "The stars shall fall from heaven," and then further along says: "Therefore we conclude that of those who witnessed the falling of the stars in 1833, and who were old enough to comprehend the nature of the event, some will be living on earth when Jesus comes." Those stars fell in left shoulder and back. I wrote you, and you prescribed your Golden MRS. GARRETT. Medical Discovery.' I took only one bottle before I felt better. After two bottles I could sit up, and felt I had been saved from the grave.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.-Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

of stars? No one to whom to speak or share with me those irrepressible emotions

come familiar with the theory of the Christ's second coming, and, only with childish thoughts about that end of our sinful lives and beginning of the millennial

day, yet that youthful experience with the "object lesson" which that event gave to

of the truth of their theory of the early part of any theory-with this result as a conclusion: As no one knew the day or the hour that those stars were to fall, so, as us, would we be ready to meet Him in peace, to accept Rev. Bartlett's quotation as applying to the present time-it is near,

even at the door. Others than Second Ad-

as ominous of other-to-be happenings. One prediction was that they boded a hard win-

act counterpart of our present one, so far,

and continued warm until April, so warm that peach trees were in full bloom by the middle of March in the southeast part of the State; and, on the 26th of April peaches

were as large as the end of the little finger,

but the freeze was so severe that night

as to kill everything in the shape of fruit and much vegetation. Other predictions were just as wild as to results. The catterpillar, seventeen-year locusts, followed by a drought, never before or since equaled, caused crops, excepting wheat, to be almost an entire failure. A. S. KINGSLEY.

WILL HAVE AN INDIANA SERVICE.

Associated Press Organizes a Branch to Cover the State.

Addison C. Thomas, of Chicago, superintendent of leased wires for the Associated Press, was in the city yesterday to meet ana newspapers, who have organized what is to be known as the Indiana Associated Press. The purpose of the organization is to secure a better service of State news,

especially during the legislative sessions,

as the Associated Press does not handle

the latter. The morning papers were represented as follows: Fort Wayne Gazette, Mr. Leonard; Lafayette Journal, W.

B. Wilson; Evansville Journal-News, W.

M. Ross; Muncie Morning News, C. F. W.

Neely. The evening papers represented were: Madison Courier, M. C. Garber; Fort

Wayne Sentinel, E. A. K. Hackett; Terre

Haute Gazette, W. C. Ball; Lafayette Courier, M. M. Mayerstein; Richmond Daily

Telegram, H. D. Bertsch; Kokomo Tribune

Mr. Manigol; Brazil Democrat, Mr. Bowen. The association elected E. A. K. Hackett,

of the Fort Wayne Sentinel, president;

W. C. Ball, of the Terre Haute Gazette, vice president; M. C. Garber, of the Mad-ison Courier, secretary, and W. Bent Wilson, of the Lafayette Journal, treasurer.

Arrangements were made with Hilton U

Brown, city editor of the Indianapolis

News, to furnish the day service for the association, and with W. K. Landis, correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, to supply the night service. The representatives of the papers mentioned are well satisfied at having effected an organization that will prove of such value to them in the way of securing a thorough State service of all kinds of news. They

AMUSEMENTS.

Mr. N. C. Goodwin drew an audience

that filled the Grand to overflowing last night, and "In Mizzoura" repeated its triumph of the previous evening. At the matinee this afternoon will be the last opportunity to see it. To-night, by special request, Mr. Goodwin will present Henry

Guy Carleton's comedy, "A Gilded Fool,"

which met with so much favor here last season. It has a dramatic story running through it of sufficient interest to enlist

the attention of the auditor and hold it until the final curtain fall. The dialogue is bright and sparkling, and the situations

and stage business are ludicrous and effective. The play, while immensely funny, is not a farce; it is comedy of a high ties to demonstrate his versatility as an actor by doing some serious dramatic work, which serves as an admirable foil

to the comedy of his part, and he shows that he is equally at home in the fields of Prof. Kennedy drew another audience that filled English's last night, and his experiments in mesmerism caused great merriment. He will appear at the matinee to-day and to-night and the first part of next week, valuable presents being given'

Charles Frohman's company from the Empire Theater, New York, will present Belasco & Fyle's successful American drama, "The Girl I Left Behind Me," at the Grand Opera House next Monday night. This play is conceded to be the best native drama yet conceived. It possesses all the accompanying fever, and is of that class of plays which touches the hearts of fair

women and quickens the pulse of brave

men. All the original scenic environments

last two performances at the Park to-day.

The first part of next week the house will

a picturesque Irish comedy-drama, with a strong cast and special scenery. Follow-

Pauline Batcheller's famous May Russell

Company, with its pretty women, funny

comedians and handsome scenery, will be seen for the first time at the Empire The-

Lillian in a Hurry to Wed.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.-Miss Lillian Russell and Signor Peruguini are to be married earlier than was originally intended. The ceremony is to be quietly performed at 6

seventh streat. It will be a civil ceremony,

at which Judge McAdam, of the Superior

CURES OTHERS

To build up both solid flesh and strength

after grip, pneumonia, fevers and other prostrating diseases, there is nothing to equal Dr. Fierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

PROSTRATION FOLLOWING GRIP.

Mrs. REUBEN GARRETT,

King George C. H., Va., writes: "I was taken with grip which finally

resulted in pneumonia

Was prostrated for three months. Had a terrible

cough and was emaciated

and very weak. Was fast

drifting into "quick consumption." The doctor gave me medicines all the time. I grew weaker.

He advised cod liver oil emulsion. I took two bottles of it without any relief. I had pain in my have as its attraction "True Irish Hearts,"

"The Danger Signal" will be given its

and surroundings will be seen here.

pathos and humor.

at each performance.

ater the coming week.

Court, will officiate.

爾爾

left for home last evening.

with a number of representatives of Indi-

Indianapolis, Jan. 19.

ter; yet, the following winter was an ex-

ventists used the fact of those falling stars

of mind. With a child's mind I had be AMUSEMENTS. road, working my way home in an ox cart. The magnitude of the first fall was not greater than I had often witnessed, GRAND TO-NIGHT but the increase was so great in a moment that my first thought was that the MR NAI C. heavens were falling-the air was full, as it were, of ropes of snow, so thick that they seemed to almost touch, and came right down on me, though with no visible GOODWIN effect of touch. My young mind had al-ready taken in the reality of the falling By special request, in Mr. Henry Guy Carleton's of the stars, as connected with the second A GILDED FOOL," ocming of Christ; my home and Sunday school education had made me familiar Matinee to-day—"IN MIZZOURA."

Prices—Orchestra and boxes, $1,50; dress circle,
$1; balcony, 75c and 50c; gallery, 25c. Matinee—
Boxes and orchestra, 75c; dress circle, 50c; balcony, with that expected event. What more was needed for a reminder of that to-come event for me while alone amid that shower

To-night, and the first three nights of next week, the kin; laugh-maker, PROF. J. E.

KENNEDY

Second Adventists as a strong illustration In his amusing and amazing performances in coming of our Savior-and which they have MESMERISM diligently used all the years since—all have kept my mind busy in considering the cor-Popular Prices-All lower floor, 30c; balcony, 20cq gallery, 10c. Solid silver tea sets and water pitchers rectness of their theory-and too, while the fact of the falling stars can be no

GRAND Extra "no one knoweth the day nor the hour the Son of Man cometh," it will be wise for

Three nights and matinee, beginning MONDAY, Jan. 22, CHAS. FROHMAN'S COMPANY From the Empire Theater, New York, in the greatest of American plays, The Girl I Left Behind Me The Empire Theater's cast and production.

PRICES-All lower floor, $1; Balcony, 75c and 50c gallery, 25c. Matince-Orchestra and boxes, 75c

dress circle, 50c; gallery, 25c. Sexts now on sale.

Matinee to-day, to-night, last two

GREATEST OF RAILROAD PLAYS, Presented with a great cast, and startling mechani-cal effects

Popular Prices-10, 20, 30 cents. Next Monday-"TRUE IRISH HEARTS." IDD THEATER IN Wabash and Del. Sta

TO NIGHT at 8,

15c, 25c, 50c. Introducing wonderful mechanical effects. Seats may be secured by Telephone 1703. Next week - MAY BUSSELL COMPANY.

M.C.A. COURSE.

TOMLINSON HALL, TUESDAY, Jan. 23, The great Tenor, MR. WHITNEY

MOCKRIDGE

Supported by the CHICAGO RIVALS.

Mrs. James Bogle, Soprano, Mr. Harry Dumond, Violinist, Miss Margaret MacDowell, Reader

POPULAR PRICES-25c, 50c, 75c. On sale at Y. M. C. A. this morning.

Mr. Henry Eams, Planist.

Col. SAMUEL MERRILL - WILL GIVE -

"A TALK ON INDIA" Ladies' Society of the Fourth Presh. Church

JAN. 23, 8 p. m., at THE PROPYLÆUM

ADMISSION-50 cents; Children, 25 cents.

Tickets for sale at Bowen-Merrill's and Cath-cart & Cleland's Bookstore, and at the door. ANNUAL EXHIBITION

Indiana Poultry Ass'n MASONIC HALL, Indianapolis, Jan. 16, 17, 18, 19, 20.

POULTRY.

PIGEONS, RABBITS AND

PET STOCK. Incubators in operation. Admission, 25 cents; children, 10 cents, W. H. FRY, Sec. B. F. HILL, Pres.

PROF. WALTER SIMS At MASONIC HALL ALL NEXT WEEK. fervor of the melodrama without any of its

National Tube Works WROUGHT-IRON PIP B Gas, Steam and Water

Boiler Tubes, Cast and Malleable I ron Fittings black and galvasized, V Ives, Stop Cooks, Engine Trimmings Steam Ganges, Pipe Tongs, Pipe Gutters, Vises, Scr. w Pintes and Dies, Wrenches, Steam Traps, Pumps, kitchen sinks, Hose, Belting, Babbit Metal, Sol. der, White and Colored Wip-ing Waste, and all other Supplies use in connect on with Gas, Steam and Water. Natural Gas Surplies a specialty.
Steam-heating Apparat is for Public Buildings Store rooms,
Mills, Shops, Factories, Laundries. Lumber Dry houses, etc. Cut and Thread to or ler any sire Wought-iron Pipe, from 's inch to 12 inches

Knight & Jillson, 75 and 77 S. PENNSYLVANIA ST.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS.

We have removed to new and com no lines quarters. Perfect privacy and convenience assized. Capel and Morgue in charge of tady attentant. 172 North Illinois Stores,

THE SUNDAY JOURNAL

Will be sent by mail to any address for